Directions: Jot down a few notes regarding your formal analysis exercise. These should be points you don’t want to forget mentioning to your peers about the work you selected. Then, take turns sharing your analysis and your ideas. Write down the feedback you’ve received from your peers in the space provided.

ANALYSIS NOTES

Your own notes about the piece you selected to analyze.

-------------------------------------------------------
-------------------------------------------------------
-------------------------------------------------------
-------------------------------------------------------

ROUND ONE

Present your analysis to your peer. Jot down things you agree with as well as any divergent perspectives.

Things we Agree About

New Perspectives